Railroad Statistics—Excellent Showing for the First Six Months.

The Funeral of the Late Wm. Tilden Felton, of New York.

War Between Turkey and Greece is Inevitable—The Porte Wants it His Way.

Boat Races in Philadelphia—Wool Market—News in General.

Washington, July 9.—At the cabinet meeting to-day, there was a discussion as to the advisability for the exercise of the president's power to withhold the expenditure of portions of money appropriated by the last river and harbor bill; but it was decided that the entire amount of the appropriation should be expended as fast as the war department in each particular case may consider it desirable. The subject of the St. Louis district attorneyship came up for discussion; but action on it was not reached. An urgent appeal was made to the president some six weeks since, and again on the 16th of June upon the same grounds. Luke Warren in supporting internal revenue officers in the effort to break up illicit distilling in the State of Georgia, it was claimed the course of this officer proved positive obstruction to the law and while the revenue officers in every other State had succeeded in fully enforcing the revenue laws in Georgia, and allow moonshiners to continue to defy, and were more or less encouraged by officers who should naturally be expected to vigorously enforce the law, but who failed to show any disposition to do so in the case of Fitzmumner. Although there is considerable pressure brought to bear on the president for his removal no action has yet been taken, and so far as can be learnt, the matter has not been brought to the attention of the cabinet; his case differs from that of the district attorney Farrow, in that his commission has not yet expired, and removal during recess of congress except for good and sufficient cause; this would directly antagonize the tenure of the office act.

RAILROAD STATISTICS.

New York, July 9.—Thus far thirty-nine railroads have reported their traffic for June, and the account stand as follows: 1880, $17,859,013; 1879, $13,064,654. Increase, $4,794,359. For the first half year thirty-three roads have reported officially, and the totals are as follows: 1880, $82,044,776; 1879, $65,067,485. Increase, $17,977,291. Included in the returns for six months are a few of the important roads, like the New York Central, North Western, St. Paul, Illinois Central, Central Pacific, and Wabash; but otherwise totals are made from the statements of comparatively unimportant lines. The figures of the Lake Shore, Erie, Michigan Central, Canada Southern, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Union Pacific and the Baltimore and Ohio companies are wanting. If the earnings of these roads were at hand and added to the total of the thirty-three lines already given, then the traffic for the first half year would appear marvelous. The New York Central gains, $630,000 for June and $3,555,000 for nine months. The Lake Shore gains $430,000 for June. The Chesapeake and Ohio earnings increase $440,000 for the first six months of the year. Chicago and Alton gains $1,219,000 in the same period. The traffic of the Northern Pacific increases $62,000 in June, and the Denver & Rio Grande gains $50,000 in the first week of July.

Laurel, Pa., July 9.—This morning, while Phil. Shumake, a leading merchant, and his wife were crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Salunga, their carriage was struck by the Nicaragua express, west, and both of the occupants were killed.

WOOL MARKET.

Philadelphia, July 9.—Wool firm and prices steady. The receipts of the new crop are very small.

Knoxville, July 9.—The Republican of the first district of Tennessee nominated A. H. Pettibone.

Paris, July 9.—The senate committee has adopted the amendment to amnesty bill proposed by Gen. Pellier excluding the incendiaries and assassins as persons who have been condemned after one trial, from the benefits of the bill, Jules Simon in addressing the committee after the adoption of this amendment, said that he should always be of the opinion that amnesty imposed on the country by the action of men who had themselves been convicted and constituted danger to the public morality, and that the promoters of amnesty had committed a grave error and had brought a veritable trouble on the country; but, nevertheless, for the sake of a conciliation and the security of the country, we have adopted the text of the bill passed by the chamber of deputies, merely adding this. The incendiaries and murderers condemned after trial shall be excluded from amnesty. The bill thus amended was submitted to the senate this evening. Gen. Pellier reminded the house that the most guilty communists were those condemned and consequently, undefined and that it would, under those circumstances, be unjust to pardon such men, while others were excluded from the proposed benefits if the senate voted the amnesty with limitation, avigation in the country would continue. The part of the bill proposed by the committee was adopted. The senate then agreed to amend the amendment; votes by minor depositing that the exceptions made to the bill was made against incendiaries and murders, shall not apply to convicts whose sentence have already been commuted and passed.

A FATAL DUEL.

A Highly Respected Attorney of Charleston, South Carolina, Shot Through the Heart.

Col. E. B. C. Cash, of Chestertfield, killed Col. Wm. Shannon, of Canada, in a duel yesterday.

Specials to the News and Courier say that the duel took place at Dubose's bridge, on the border of Canada county. Shannon, the challenging party, fired the first ball, striking the ground near Cash's feet. Cash then fired, and the ball passed through Shannon's heart. Death was instantaneous. Col. Shannon denied to the press his having reflected on Mrs. Cash's legal proceedings, which caused the trouble, and challenged Cash on account of the latter's abusive publications concerning him. Shannon was a lawyer of high character, and leaves a large and dependent family. The meeting took place at 2 o'clock yesterday. The fatal duel was the outcome of a controversy between Col. E. B. C. Cash and Capt. W. I. Depass and Col. W. M. Seannon. Depass and Cash made arrangements to fight, but did not meet in consequence of the arrest of the former. Shannon was challenged by Mr. Clutch, one of the parties to the controversy, but the challenge was refused. Cash then published Shannon as a coward, and out of this it is supposed the meeting rose. The difficulties above mentioned led to the formation of the Camden anti-duel association. Col. Shannon was about 60 years of age and universally beloved and respected.

The New York Fashionable Mermaids.

Audacity is not exactly a rare quality amongst the reporters of the American press. A representative of the New York Herald, however, appears to have distanced the most daring exploits by the members of that fraternity which we have hitherto seen recorded. Alone and undisguised this gentleman has visited, for purposes of description, a fashionable ladies' bathing establishment in New York, and the account of his experiences appears in the Herald of May 25. Without any previous arrangement, the reporter simply presented himself at the reception room and requested to be admitted, as though the request was the most natural one in the world. Some objection was raised by the lady manager, who, however, ultimately consented to submit the proposal to the bathers, and presently returned with the intimation that, "considering the circumstances," the young ladies had consented to receive their visitor. A little delay was requested for toilet preparations; but, strange, to say, only ten minutes was thus consumed. The adventurous scribe acknowledges to having felt some embarrassment as he was ushered into a long corridor opening into a series of darkened dressing-rooms. In a gallery running round the swimming-tank sat a number of ladies; and, as a part of the high class character of the establishment, it is recorded that, they had "$10 parolals besides them." We read that "sirens from Fifth avenue, maids from Murray Hill, and mermaids from Washington Heights were coquetting with the brine." They swam around "as if they were vivified statues; they dived, they leaped out of the water, and played pranks with each other; while some of the more agile performed marvelous 'stunts' on the horizontal bar, and turned somersets backward and forward, until the place became a sort of South Sea Island, blushing with modern improvements." They linked themselves together into what they called "a railroad train," and the newly-constructed figure "glided around the reservoir as gracefully as a sea-serpent." The fair bathers, it appears, were incased in a species of modest ball-room costume, without trains, and in some instances the edges of the garments were ornamented with lace ruffling, which, although moist, contrasted pleasingly with the snowy skin beneath." The Herald's reporter should remember the fate of Acteon.

An elderly man was standing at the ferry, while a young man was calling him all the vile names imaginable. At length he could hear it no more. He said: "I am deaf. Will some one bring me an ear trumpet? If I can hear the thing now that I heard a moment ago I will whip the villain."

London, July 9.—In the house of commons, on the committee this evening Parnell and others for Ireland, persisted in combatting the new clause of compensation for the disturbance bill although it was not before the committee. Buggar, a home ruler, was called to order for using violence against the landlords of Ireland, particularly Lord Leitrim. Mr. Mitchell, Henry, also a home ruler, in his debate, announced his intention to quit the land league, and said that he repudiated its strong views. The King of Greece arrived in Berlin on his way to St. Petersburg. A despatch from Berlin says that the opinion prevails in political circles here that the Porte will decline to accept the resolutions of the conference, and that it will be impossible to prevent bloodshed between the Turks and Greeks.

New York, July 9.—The funeral of the late Col. Wm. Tilden Felton, nephew and Secretary of ex-Governor Tilden, took place this evening from Mr. Tilden's residence, 15 Grammercy Park.

St. Petersburg, July 9.—The Agent Russ has expressed the conviction, that the Porte will yield to the wishes of Europe.
